Protection of Minors on Campus

Resource Page – What You Need to Know in Less than 5 Minutes

The University of Illinois recognizes a fundamental obligation to protect minors when they are on university premises participating in university programs designed to include minors, or are in the care of university staff. A minor is anyone under 18.

If you suspect child abuse or neglect of a minor, even if they are full-time students attending the university, you must IMMEDIATELY report your suspicions to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) at 1-800-25-ABUSE.
In addition, you must in suspected child abuse neglect to the universi police/public safety department.	Death of a ch abuse or neg reported to th or coroner. T you with this.	lect mu e appr	You are required to cooperate with any investigations into alleged child abuse or neglect.
The Illinois Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act (ANCRA), imposes mandatory reporting requirements on ALL university personnel (including faculty, staff, post-docs, visiting scholars, and student employees).		 ANCRA reporting also applies to: Contractors providing services or support for university activities including minors. Authorized volunteers performing services for university programs designed to include minors or gaining personal or professional experience in specific endeavors. Students whose coursework involves work with minors should refer to their professor, supervisor, or unit human resources office for their training and reporting requirements.
